Important Reminders

- Please make sure that no leaves or grass clippings are pushed/blown into the street! This is against village ordinance and fines can be given.
- Each person is responsible for keeping the sidewalk in front of their residence clean and free of any debris, also includes leaves, acorns, snow and ice.
- If you need a place to dump your leaves there is a pile behind the Village Shop, make sure that LEAVES ONLY are placed in the pile. No bags or garbage.
- There is a brush pile available for resident use by the Waste Water Treatment Plant. This pile is for BRUSH ONLY!

We would like to welcome Donna Blazek as the new Administrative Assistant for the Village of Frederic. Donna has years of experience and will be an asset to our staff.

Winter Parking Restrictions

You know it's coming...

Please remember that there is no overnight parking on any village street starting November 1st.

Tickets will be given.

If it snows before November 1st, please have your car off the street by the time the plows are out.
