LOCAL AUTHOR VISIT: CURT REISS

Saturday, March 15

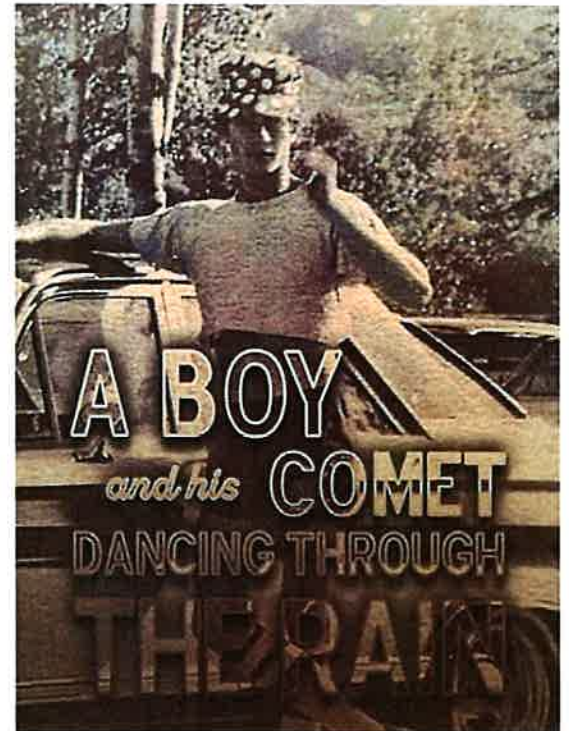

10am

In A Boy and His Comet: Dancing Through the Rain, we meet a young man facing seemingly insurmountable obstacles. Dismissed and discouraged by his high school counselor, he's told that college is a far-fetched dream. His senior year becomes a survival challenge, living alone in the woods without basic amenities, grappling with the shame of his situation and the painful legacy of parental abuse he's forced to keep hidden.

At 17, free from the constraints of his tumultuous home life, he is confronted with temptations - drugs, alcohol, and sex - testing his resolve to maintain his personal values. This book is a poignant tale of an American boy who, against all odds, breaks free from a cycle of dysfunction to chart his own course to extraordinary success, ultimately becoming a self-made millionaire.

Curt is a northern Wisconsin resident and will be with us for an interview about his inspiring story on March 15.

This event is free and open to the public.
